

BRASS DOVE

a bar by Dovetail Bars

BRASS DOVE

You may already know us by a different name. If you've been to Dovetail Bar in Covent Garden or Leicester Square, you'll likely recognise some drinks, and there may well be a few familiar faces behind the bar.

Brass Dove is something different, not just a cocktail bar. We wanted to offer something new for our Chancery Lane site. Still with the the same love and care going into the cocktails, and still with the same hospitality and eye for detail. However, Brass Dove is something else, a library of the less usual.

This is the City of London, there are plenty of bars with immaculate spirits collections. However, we've chosen to instead stock the dark horses. Spirits from locations of which you may never have heard, whiskeys bottled before you were born, and the last dregs of long forgotten casks. And once they're gone, they're gone.

A WORD ON OFF MENU REQUESTS

We're not a large bar, and we may not be able to stock every ingredient, but we have an excellent team who are always happy to make recommendations. Some of you may never have been to a cocktail bar, and if so we're pleased to be your first, and some of you may have lost count. Regardless of your knowledge, experience or tastes, we believe cocktails should neither be daunting nor challenging. Please let us know what you like, what you may enjoyed in the past, or what might disappoint you, and we'd love to help you find a drink that's right for you.

And on that note, if for whatever reason you aren't absolutely happy with your drink, please, please let us know and we will gladly replace it. Don't suffer in silence - you are paying for a service, and we intend to ensure that it is delivered beyond reproach. Drinks are a matter of taste, and we would hate for one of our guests to be anything less than happy with what they've chosen. So we implore you; if you are not absolutely, unequivocally thrilled with your drink, let us know and we will gladly make it right.

MASTERCLASSES & PRIVATE EVENTS

We believe a bar should be more than just a place to drink; it's a space for creating memories. That's why we offer private hires and masterclasses to make your experience exceptional. Our masterclasses, led by expert bartenders, delve into the history of spirits, the art of cocktail making, or into any subject you'd wish for us to teach.
